FEMALE WRESTLING

PFC TINA GEORGE

PFC Tina George entered the Army in 2001. In 2002 she joined the World Class Athlete Program's wrestling team, won silver medals at the Women's Wrestling World Championships in Greece and the Pan Am Qualifier in Guatemala, gold medals from the University National Championships and U.S. World Team Trials, and was named Army female athlete of the year. This year, George won silver at the U.S. National Championships, and gold at the U.S. World Team Trials and the Pan American Games.

WCAP is one of 50 morale, welfare and recreation programs the Army provides soldiers and families worldwide through the U.S. Army Community & Family Support Center.
